

Character Reference Letter for Coworker

Date – x/xx/xxxx

To Whom it may concern

I'm feeling delighted and honored to write this letter for Mr. Sherlock Holmes has been an amazing coworker of mine for the last 8 years. We have worked together at _____ for the last 8 years period. In this long period, I got completely exposed to the work ethics of Mr. Holmes. I feel literally honored to have worked with him for such a long period of time. I find it quite needless to say here that I'm writing this letter as the character reference for such a noble and work principled man. Subsequently, I highly recommend Mr. Sherlock Holmes for the applied post in the company. I'm so sure that he would be a great asset to the company in near future.

Thanks & Regards
