Dear Sir,

I am writing on behalf of Edward, who is applying for a gun license. I have been his coworker for 5 years and can confidently attest to his clean record and outstanding character.

Edward has lived in this situation of using pistols for the last 3 years. He has never been arrested, nor has he ever abused drugs or alcohol. Edward is very conscientious and safety-minded. I have noticed at the office that he always anecdotes illustrating caution, safety, rules, etc.

Edward is aware of the risks and moral obligations of owning a firearm and has prepared accordingly. He has already bought a safe, installed a lock, and taken a safety course, to prepare for this new responsibility. I can think of no one who is more likely to handle a gun with greater care or maturity.

Thank you very much for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
Charles Reyes
