Dear Judge Vikash Satpathy,

I am writing this letter for my son, Raghav Kundu, who has been acquitted in the recent Sunday Market Brawl Case. As a father, I would have never wanted him to be there, and I will surely reprimand him for being such company which got him to be one of the accused of this case.

I would sincerely like to vouch for the good character of my son. He has grown into a true gentleman and his helpful nature, and kind gestures in our society and his college is a true testimony of that. Sometimes you fall in the trap of bad company and whatever happened that night was in the matter of rage and I am sure that he wouldn't have done it had he not been influenced.

I would sincerely request you to look into this character letter before passing any verdict, and I am sure he will feel guilty and would never commit to such a thing in his life.

Thank You.

Yours sincerely,
Anirban Kundu
