

Character Reference Letter for friend

To Whom It May Concern

I'm writing this character reference letter for my friend Mr. Arvind Khera has also been my coworker for 2 years now. I know Mr. Arvind Khera for the last 10 years as he has been my neighbor since then. Furthermore, we both have been working as well for about 2 years now. I provide my open reference for his character that he is the man of utmost principle and hard work. He has a very decent work ethic and professional credibility at his previous workplace. Furthermore, He had achieved the number of employees of the year award at his workplace and had always given more than his capability to the work.

He is fully dedicated and passionate about his job and always shows the same in his work diligence. I believe he is an invaluable asset to any company that he might be planning to join in his career perspective ahead. So, Kindly consider him in positive regard and grant him a chance to prove his worth. I'm damn sure that he would be taking the company to whole new dimensions.

Thanks & Regards
