Dear sir,

I have the honour to recommend Jim Brooks as a Second Lieutenant and for promotion to Colonel. For 5 years he has been the second lieutenant of the US Army.

During his service in our unit, Jim has come a long way to this same position. He managed to establish friendly relations with the closest circle of soldiers and the entire crew. Jim's eagerness and dedication became an example for the over and over again.

Based on Jim's outstanding qualities, I strongly support their promotion to the high rank. I am deeply convinced that this decision will be fair not only for them but also for the US Army. Stay in touch with me if you would like to clarify any details in my recommendation.

Sincerely,

William

Senior officer
