Subject: Character Reference for Brian J. Jones

Your Honor,

The letter aims to describe Brian J. Jone's admirable personality. We have been working together for the past 10 years as nurses in the Name of Hospital. I can verify that she is conscientious, thoughtful, responsible, and devoted to helping others. He has received several awards for his outstanding work, including Murse of the Year for three years in a row.

He's regarded as a fully realized and compassionate member of the medical staff by most of his colleagues. Whenever we've been in an emergency situation, he's managed us with reasonable prudence and tenderness.

In spite of the fact that he has pleaded guilty to driving under the influence, I wish to express that he is not a drunk, and therefore this unfortunate incident was one-of-a-kind. It's apparent that he is extremely sensitive to his load-bearing mistake and is deeply remorseful for it.

I hope this letter may provide you with an opportunity to learn about his character and give him an opportunity to disprove this was an aberration.

Thank you for taking the time to read this letter.

Sincerely,
Richard E. Thomson
