

Sample Character Reference Letter for the Babysitter

F

To whom it may concern:

This letter is a personal reference for (put your name here) to work as a babysitter. I believe he/she is fully qualified for the job and that she has common sense and a caring personality that makes her a wonderful person to work with kids. This allows us as parents to be confident that our kids will be In good hands under his/her care. He/She has been working with us for the past XX months during weekdays and weekends and has full availability of time when he/she is required. He/She is a very responsible, punctual person that follows instructions without any problem and who is always aware of the time for the different activities that he/she must do with the kids (play time, study time, dinner time, and bedtime). The children respect his/her authority and consider him/her as part of our family.

You can be sure that your kids will be in the best hands with (your name here), a responsible and integral person.

Sincerely
