Dear sir,

I wanted to express my support for Mr and Mrs Drennen who are hoping to become adoptive parents. I am their loyal neighbour. I have known them for 5 years.

Mr and Mrs Drennen are very trustworthy. But even more importantly, I have witnessed their behaviour and how they have shown good care and help to my own children. For instance, I recall how supportive and cooperative they will be when they will have kids.

I admire their relationship as I have seen them go through some difficult times, and they still show love and affection for one another. I believe that Mr and Mrs can provide a child with a loving, stable, and secure home.

I do not doubt in my mind that they are ready to take on the responsibility of adopting and raising a child.

Sincerely,
Levi Gates
