Re: Letter to the judge in relation to the court sentencing of John Huston

To the Sentencing Judge,

I humbly ask your good office that you show utmost leniency in your choice of a sentence with respect to John Huston's criminal case. I am appealing and pleading for your clemency as a colleague of John.

I can attest that he has shown his sincerity to make amends. Your honour, John is a good and honest person. I have been working with him as a manager at ABC company for over 10 years and I have never witnessed or have known of any instance that John committed an offence which constitutes grave misconduct or actions shown in his moral depravity. I also know that John accepts and knows that he has done something wrong and understands that he needs to make reparations for it.

John is an active member of non-profit organisations. He participated in several charitable and social development campaigns and programs. He is an approachable person in the community and a family man. I hope you consider the preceding information in sentencing him on (date).

Thank you for accepting and taking the time to read my letter.

Sincerely,

Agustin Thomas
