Re: Sample Complaint Letter For Defamation Of Character

Dear sir,

I am writing this to make a complaint. Yours is an organization of very good reputation. It is known for great ethical values, but recently, I came across disappointment with some of your employees.

I would like to bring it to your notice that certain employees of your organization have been spreading false information about me. There have been repeated attacks on my character and reputation. There have statements made by your employees against my character and the way I conduct business. Some of your employees were quoted saying that "I cheat my business partners" and "abuse my employees" which are completely baseless and untrue. I understand the being in the same industry our companies are pitted as competitors but to succeed and survive I don't agree with such behaviour against me.

I believe I have done the right thing by complaining to you, as I am sure that being that head of your organization you will definitely look into the matter and reprimand the employees concern. Please ensure that such incidents do not happen again as it is detrimental to both our organizations.

I hope this complaint is considered as a fair warning and has the desired effect or else I would be forced to take legal action against your employees.

Sincerely,
Larry Greene
