Dear Attorney,

I am writing to request your help with a defamation of character claim. Recently, I was the victim of online slander and libel. The person who posted the defamatory content online is now trying to get me to sue them for damages. I know that filing a lawsuit would be a costly and time-consuming process, and I want to avoid doing anything that could further damage my reputation. Can you help me get out from under this situation without having to go through with a lawsuit?

Thank you for your time.

Your sincerely,

James Lewis
