To,
Honourable judge,
Sessions court,
Memphis

Dear Judge,

I am writing this letter for my son, Randall Hauser, who has been acquainted with the recent mall case. As a father, I would have never wanted him to be there, and I will surely reprimand him for being a such company which got him to be one of the accused in this case.

I would sincerely like to vouch for the good character of my son. He has been brought up as a true gentleman and his decent nature and kind gestures in our colony and also in his college. But sometimes we fail in the trap of the worst company. I m sure that he wouldn't have done it and was influenced by others' bad doings.

I would truly request you to look into this character letter before passing any verdict, and I am promising that he will feel guilty and would never commit to such a thing in his life.

Thank you

Yours sincerely,
Jorge Hauser
