Dear [Judge's name],

I am writing to you today to provide a character reference for Ronald Irvin, who is appearing before your court. I have known Ronald for 10 years, and I am confident in their character and integrity.

As an employee, Ronald has consistently demonstrated politeness, a perceptive and ambitious person.

Ronald has always been a reliable and trustworthy individual, and I believe that he has learned from this experience and will strive to make better choices in the future. I urge you to consider his character and reputation when determining his sentence.

Thank you for considering my recommendation.

Sincerely,

Richard Morrow
