Dear Judge,

I am writing this letter to provide a character reference for my husband, Michael Frost, who is currently facing a court hearing.

My husband has been a part of my life for 5 years. During that time, I have seen him be a responsible and honest man. He is caring and compassionate, and always puts others before himself. I know that he is genuinely remorseful for the mistake he has made, and I believe that he has the capacity to learn from it and move forward.

He is an active member of our community and volunteers regularly for local charities. He is committed to helping those in need and always has a positive attitude. His commitment to helping others has earned him a great amount of respect from those around him.

I am confident that my husband will take this experience and use it to grow and become an even better person. He has my full support and I am certain that he will be able to put this incident behind him and move forward with a bright future.

Sincerely,
Anne Lam
