Dear Sir,

I would like to take the time to introduce you to a former employee of mine. Michael Youngberg is not only a compassionate and intelligent pharmacist, but he is also extremely hardworking. He has truly been an asset to our team with her solid communication skills and ability to solve problems. I hope that you will consider her for your open position.

Michael has always been a solid communicator with our team. he never fails to provide communication when something is going wrong, and he speaks up when there is an issue that managers need to address. His communication skills also reach our customers, who are happy to have somebody addressing their concerns.

Finally, Michael is a go-getter. He solves problems on his own and comes to managers with only the problems he is unable to solve. He truly has a passion for working in the pharmacy, and his skills would be a great fit for your shop as well.

Regards,
Thomas Johnston
