Dear [Judge's name],

I am writing to express my support for [Your name] as they go through the divorce process. I have known [Your name] for several years and can confidently say that they are a person of good character and integrity.

My husband and I have spent a lot of time together, and throughout this friendship, I have seen firsthand how much [Your name] values and prioritizes their family. He has always been a dedicated and loving husband, and his children have always been his favourite thing.

In my interactions with [Your name], they have always been respectful, fair and honest. They have always handled difficult situations with maturity and level-headedness, and I am confident that they will approach the divorce process with the same level of professionalism.

I believe that [Your name] has the best interests of their family at heart, and will work towards a resolution that is fair and just for everyone involved. They have always been willing to compromise and seek the best outcome for all parties involved.

I kindly ask that you take [Your name] character and integrity into consideration during the proceedings.

Sincerely,

[Your name and contact information]
