

Character Reference Letter

Ava Thompson
6780 Walnut Avenue
Los Angeles, CA 90012
Email: ava.thompson@email.com
Phone: (213) 555-4567

[Date]

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to provide a character reference for [Inmate's Full Name], who I have known for [number of years] as a [state your relationship, e.g., friend, relative, former coworker]. During this time, I have seen [him/her/them] grow and work diligently towards becoming a better person.

Since [his/her/their] incarceration, [Inmate's Name] has demonstrated a strong commitment to personal growth and positive change. [He/She/They] have actively engaged in [specific programs such as educational courses, counseling sessions, or volunteer work], showing genuine remorse and a proactive attitude towards self-improvement. [His/Her/Their] dedication to making amends and setting a new course for the future is evident.

Beyond [his/her/their] efforts in structured programs, [Inmate's Name] has consistently displayed kindness and respect towards others. [He/She/They] have often taken the initiative to assist fellow inmates, mentor younger individuals, and contribute positively to the prison community, demonstrating leadership and empathy.

[Inmate's Name] has a robust support system eagerly waiting for [his/her/their] return, including family, friends, and potential employment opportunities. [He/She/They] are committed to reintegrating into society, and I am confident that [he/she/they] will be a responsible, contributing member of the community.

I respectfully urge you to consider [Inmate's Name] for any opportunities that may support [his/her/their] release or rehabilitation. I firmly believe that [he/she/they] have learned valuable lessons and are fully prepared to lead a positive and productive life.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

[Your Signature]

Ava Thompson
Los Angeles, CA 90012
Email: ava.thompon@email.com
Phone: (213) 545-4567